

Delta GCI Legal Services:

In cooperation with our International legal consulting firms, Delta GCI presents to our esteemed clients an exclusive and comprehensive bundle of diverse broad legal services that will insure speed and accuracy in all important procedures. This powerful combination of professional legal services and Delta's specialized basic services originally offered, will expedite matters, shield and protect our clients planning to enter the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia Market.

Our Legal Services covers the following branches of the law

- Administrative Law and Government Contracts.
- Advertising and marketing laws.
- Antitrust & Trade regulations.
- Bankruptcy, Insolvency & Business restructuration.
- Regulations on professional licenses in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia.
- Commercial agency agreements, distribution, agency, representation, Intermediation.
- Construction & Contracting Laws.
- Corporate Representation and Advisory Services.
- Employment & Benefits & Labor Law.
- Commercial Law (local and international contracts, financial sector law) .
- Information Security & Cybercrime.
- Insurance & Reinsurance domestic and international contracts.
- Intellectual Property, (Protection of Trademarks, Copyrights) .
- International Technology Transactions.
- International Trade & Customs (WTO) .
- Investment & Strategic Ventures.
- Joint Ventures & Strategic Alliances.
- Technology & Internet Law & Transactions.
- Litigation before the courts international arbitration, mediation and alternative dispute resolution.

Premier Specialized Services:

Commercial Consultancy Agreements:

For the foreign company that needs to obtain extensive information and market studies about the best market entry strategy, insight and competition prior to entry into the Saudi market.

Confidentiality Agreement:

On occasions a proper confidentiality agreement must be signed to protect any of its products that are produced and being circulated with an option to fully purchase and own the rights to the documents completely.

Intellectual Property rights agreements:

Many major corporations choose to begin by signing a major IP protection agreement prior to signing any other agreements.

Agreements for supply of Marketing Service:

When delta is requested to do a local marketing and advertising campaign the foreign corporation an additional agreements must be signed to safeguard all requirements and services that should be carried out by delta GCI.

Legal Services Agreements:

Delta GCI also can provide the foreign clients with a list of several registered legal consultation firms that will provides a variety of excellent services and prices that will give the clients the freedom of choice.

Commissioning and Brokerage Agreements:

Delta GCI could be assigned product sale consignment for an import company through a designated contract for a specific product within a period of time, without the obligation of agency or partnership.

Technical Agreements:

These specific service agreements entitles Delta or one of its partners and agents in the kingdom of Saudi to enter into financial and technical combination agreements with foreign partner in their investment venture in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia.

Commercial alliances:

under this item fall the commercial agencies agreements, distribution agreements, franchise agreements, license of trademarks/patent/software agreements.

Consortium agreements:

Delta GCI will establish powerful consortium that includes a group of companies capable of bidding for specific government and private projects and jointly applying for public bids in field of mega construction projects.

Other agreements include:

Materials and machineries leasing agreements.

Escrow Agreements: for cash received by the main contractor.

Construction Agreements.

Maintenance Agreements.

Subcontracting Agreements.

(For any additional information regarding our legal services, please contact us at any of the numbers listed or e mail us info@deltagci.com).